Dear Household of Faith,
And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. 2 Cor. 12:9a

During our march to the sea, in March we learned a lot about the sufficiency of God's grace and since crossing the ocean we are leaning hard on those everlasting arms.

March to the Sea

We traveled from IL to KY to TN to AR to NM to NV to CA in order to board the plane to NZ. In IL we said goodbye to my family and Matthew had emergency surgery, please continue to pray, God's grace is sufficient. We broke down in TN and twice in AR but God's grace is sufficient. In NM we cleaned the trailer and in NV we began to pack and continued to pack and pack and pack, until the morning we left for the airport.

The Trip of Our Life

We drove to Los Angeles International from Las Vegas via a van and trailer supplied by the local RC church. At LAX we were blessed by Mercedes a nice RC girl that helped us get checked in and find lunch. Security at LAX thought that Dawn and the girls were dressed too modestly and therefore were suspect as possible hijackers. The Muslims on 9/11 wore similar dresses. The Bush administration did a great job of bringing in communism did they.

At Auckland International clearing customs was also fun with 35 bags and 11 passports. They had a conniption over the fact that Dawn was coming into their country with an unborn child in her belly, guess they had never heard of that before. When we declared the medications that we brought, a nice customs officer began yelling that you have to declare that over and over. Silly me I thought declaring something meant to tell them what you have.

Finally we were able to get out of the airport, and get the rental van upon arriving at the hotel we had to wait on the lawn because check in is not till 2pm. I had to make 3 trips to get all bags and people to the hotel. Then I called the real estate agent to only find out that we could not have the house we contracted for, so then the search began. Praise the Lord we only had to spend 6 days in the expensive motel before God led us to a house in Pukekohe. More next month.

Praise His Holy Name!

As I write this we are still trying to get our feet under us, but we are excited about where the Lord has led us. We expect to see the Lord do great things in the Auckland region as we pray for power to proclaim His righteousness to a lost and dying people.

Finally, we praise our God for all of you that have gone to the throne of God on our behalf and have prayed fervently for His will. May our God Bless you.

Serving the Savjour in the land of the long white cloud,
