Dear Prayer Partners,

The Road is Long but Joyful

God is so good to me, I will never be able to say I deserve the least of His mercies and yet He never leaves me hopeless. We have been traveling in June from Ohio to Georgia to Alabama. The meeting have been sweet even if they were brief, there are some good men doing good works for the name of Jesus. We had to abandon our van in Kentucky because the tranny became a shiftless machine.

We had a great time with Philadelphia Baptist church in Xenia, OH and Truth Baptist Church in Dover, OH before we headed south to Georgia. In Columbus, GA we were blessed to be with Anioch Baptist Church and spend time knocking doors to tell of the love that Christ commendeth toward us.

WFTW

Word for the World's missionary candidate school was a major refreshing point this year. The preaching of Dr. Bill Allison, Ron Johnson, Matt Johnson, Vic Wilson, Chris Staub, Charlie Andrews and Mark Wesley was edifying and up lifting to the hearers. The fellowship for our family was comforting. Phil 2:1

Please Pray

We are praying that our Father will provide the means for many churches that have expressed an interest in partnering with us to reach souls in New Zealand, to be able to send financial support along with their prayer support.

We are waiting to hear back from churches in MA, CA, OH, AL, ME, RI, NM, TX, AZ and NV about support. Please be praying with us that the Lord will provide the means for these churches to aid us on our way pilgrimage. We are also praying for some churches that have stopped sending support that they might be able to begin again. And we are always praying for those that have been with us down this long journey. Titus 3:13

Praise Report

We were traveling through Columbus, OH on July 3rd when the Lord impressed upon me that we should stop. When we pulled off the road we discovered that there were thousands of people gathering for a fireworks display. We found a parking spot four blocks away from the center of the crowd and proceeded to pass out tracts. Over a thousand tracts and six hours later there was one young lady named Lori standing reading a tract. I asked her if she understood salvation, with tears in her eyes she said no. As I explained the free gift of God she began to cry more and more and when I was done I asked her if she would like to ask God to forgive her and she said YES and proceeded to ask for Jesus to wash her sins away.

Because they need Christ in New Zealand,
