Dear Prayer Partners,

Joy unspeakable and full of glory

What joy we have to see and meet the saints of God in the battle for souls. Deputation let's you see all the dear ones of the Lord who love the Lord and declare so with faithfulness. We are blessed to have met you all and we will pray for your continued strength in the fight.

We were blessed to take part in the First Annual Capitol City Blitz in Columbus, OH. Bro. Jimmy Hood and Amazing Grace Baptist Church did a great job hosting this event. Many tracts went out downtown and at Ohio State University along with much preaching.

As we traveled in Ohio and Alabama this month we had good meetings with good churches that teach and preach the good book the way God wrote it. A special thank you to Open Door Baptist Church in Lima, OH for the many blessings and the love showered on us at your missions conference.

Thrilling Road Adventures

While in Millersburg, OH we were involved in an auto accident that totaled our new (to us) van, but praise the Lord no one was injured in either vehicle.

Upon entering Alabama Dawn's phone disappeared at a rest area. As I was calling it and praying for it's return, the young lady that had taken it answered and the chase was on. Pam nervously explained how she found it and didn't want to turn it in to lost and found (The screen says, Jesus is Lord!) While we talked my phone died, when she called back, she heard the gospel in my voice mail. Did I mention Pam was getting more and more nervous. Finally she decided to leave the phone with security at another rest stop. 150 miles and 6 hours later we had the phone and Pam had the gospel. Pray with us that she will accept the Lord. 2 Pet. 3:9

We are Thankful

We are continuing in the south for next few months, we will be in AL, GA and FL for most of the winter. Our support is continuing to increase and we are praying that the Lord will make it so that all things are prepared for us to leave for NZ in the coming year.

The Lord provided a van for us as we were departing Ohio and the blessings are innumerable. Thank you to the Joe Reynolds family for hosting us with Godly hospitality during our stay in Ohio.
